LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Col. Joseph Mobutu, infuriated by a mob assault of Premier Patrice Lumumba's partisans on two of his government commissioners today demanded immediate withdrawal of U.N. Ghana soldiers from the Congo.

Mobutu voiced the demand at a three-hour meeting of the United Nations Command.

Sources close to the youthful strong man said he protested the protection that the Ghana brigade and the Ghana mission here have given Lumumba in his fight against President Joseph Kasavubu and Mobutu for control of the country.

The meeting followed a series of incidents in Leopoldville in which two of the commissioners appointed by Mobutu to run government affairs were beaten up by Lumumba followers.

Mobutu, accompanied by all the commissioners except Darnio Kandolo, was received at U.N. headquarters by Rajeshwar Dayal of India, special representative of Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld, and Gen. Carl von Horn of Sweden, commander of the U.N. military force here.

Dayal left the meeting after an hour, but Gen. von Horn remained with Mobutu for three hours. Von Horn and Mobutu then emerged grim-faced and refused to make any statement.

One of the commissioners, Jose Nussbaumer, came from the meeting in his stocking feet with a shirt and underwear torn.

He told newsmen he and Kandolo were beaten by 60 Lumumba supporters in their office facing Lumumba's residence. Nussbaumer said Kandolo received serious head injuries and was taken to a hospital.

Mass Boycott at AM&N Over Davis Matter

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—The more than 1,500 students at Arkansas A&M College for Negroes began a mass boycott of classes today and made preparations for possible wholesale withdrawal in protest of the impending ouster of college president Dr. Lawrence A. Davis.

Constantine Nicholas, vice president of the student government, said the boycott was 100 per cent effective and that students were obtaining cards for dropping all classes for which they had enrolled.

Mrs. D. G. Phipps, registrar, confirmed that her office had hundreds of requests for withdrawal or drop cards.

"There's a line stretching all the way down to the end of the hall," she said.

Nicholas said the boycott would continue at least through Wednesday, when a board of trustees meeting is scheduled, and that if Davis is ousted, the withdrawal will begin.

The board of trustees asked Davis to resign at the end of the current semester after an audit revealed alleged mismanagement of $4,400 in scholarship funds.

Davis said he had nothing to do with the irregularity or the fund. He said he would not fight to keep his job, only to do it the way he thought he should.

Davis is scheduled to announce his decision on the board's request at the Wednesday meeting.

A source at the school said a large number of faculty members have prepared letters of resignation for submission Thursday if Davis is ousted Wednesday.

Student sources said more than 800 applications for admission have been mailed by AM&N students to predominantly white Arkansas colleges. AM&N is the only state-supported college for Negroes, but the other nine schools admit a few Negroes.

The students have been behind Davis since the ouster. They held daily protest rallies for several days and warned that "no action is too severe" for them unless the board's order to Davis was rescinded.

Davis was in Hot Springs today to attend a meeting of the Southern Regional Education Board.

Escapes Tell of Slaying, Probe Starts

DANVERS, Mass. (AP)—Danvers police today sought verification from Indiana authorities of a slaying story they said was told them by one of two self-described prison escapes picked up in a stolen car here Sunday.

The pair described themselves, police said, as James Hayes, 27, of Texarkana, Ark., and Warren Golden, 25, of Langley, (Pike County) Ark.

Sgt. Jeremiah Minehan said Golden told under questioning that he had killed a girl in Huntington, Ind., Wednesday. She was described as about 20 years old.

Police said the pair told them they escaped last Monday from the Federal Reformatory Institution at Texarkana, Tex. The car was stolen in Fort Wayne, Ind., police said.

Prison officials at Texarkana said Hayes and Golden walked away from a farm detail working outside the prison Sept. 19.

They said Hayes was serving 30 months for interstate transportation of a stolen vehicle and Golden was serving a five-year term for white slavery.

Nixon School Plan Is for Buildings Only

WASHINGTON (AP)—A broad program of federal aid to education, including college scholarships and money for building both public school and college classrooms, is advocated by Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

But he supported only indirect aid for teachers' salaries, saying, "We must avoid the danger of rigid federal control over who teaches and what is taught in our public schools."

He said federal funds should be used to help build new public schools and to help local districts pay off bonded debt on new schools already built. He said the local money thus freed could be used to raise teachers' salaries.

Nixon's views were set forth Sunday night in the third of a series of "position papers" he is issuing during the election campaign to outline his views at length on various national issues.

Secretary of Welfare Arthur Flemming told newsmen Nixon's program "is the most practical you can get in terms of what you can get through Congress." He said many Congress members would support such a program who would oppose any direct federal aid to increase teachers' salaries.

But Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., said in a statement that such a program lacking salary aid "continues to miss the most essential issue." He contended also that matching construction grants would attract state money away from teachers' salaries, rather than adding to the total available for that purpose.

He said that Nixon, in advocating aid for college classroom construction, is now supporting a Democratic program which President Eisenhower vetoed twice when it was included in general housing bills.

"One that point, Nixon proposed that the present federal program of low-cost loans for college dormitory construction be 'greatly expanded into a program of both loans and matching grants for classrooms and laboratories and libraries as well.'"

Western Offensive Against UN Revision Demand Mounting

Nikita Trying for Favor of Neutral Group

By LEWIS GULICK

NEW YORK (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev maneuvered today for the favor of neutrals in the swelling struggle over international leadership and the future of the United Nations.

The Soviet premier promised to hear out Cuba's Fidel Castro—even if Castro's speech to the U.N. General Assembly ran six hours instead of the predicted four.

He arranged an early evening date with Jawaharlal Nehru, Indian prime minister, who had an appointment with President Eisenhower earlier in the day.

Khrushchev also planned to attend a luncheon given by Cleveland industrialist Cyrus Eaton, who said the purpose is "to consider means of increasing trade between the Soviet Union and North America." U. S. and Canadian industrialists were invited.

Khrushchev was off to a running start for his second week here as the result of a supposed rest weekend at the Glen Cove, Long Island, estate of the Soviet delegation to the U. N.

The Kremlin boss met with newsmen with seeming casualness, once late Saturday and twice Sunday for question-and-answer periods lasting as long as 1½ hours. He alternately joked and, turning serious, tossed out now "fireworks" as followups to his Friday speech that shook the U. N.

One said: "1. Unless the U. N. is revamped, as Khrushchev proposes, 'We will likewise be unable to solve the disarmament question.'"

Under Khrushchev's plan, the present setup under Dag Hammarskjöld, Secretary-General of the U. N., would be replaced by three secretaries-general representing the West, the Communist and the neutral nations. Khrushchev says Hammarskjöld is a lackey of the West.

2. If the U. N. is not reorganized according to his scheme, the world "shall continue to be in a state of cold war."

3. Under his proposed reorganization, each of the three groups could exercise a veto over U. N. actions. "This point had been left unclear in his U. N. speech."

The bouncy premier, who conducted one press conference in the middle of the road in front of the estate, showed no reluctance in commenting on any subject the reporters could think up.

Four Escape From Jail at Hot Springs

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Four prisoners saved a barred window and escaped from Garland County Jail Sunday. Three of them were still at large today.

Being sought were H. Clay Hughes, 24, and Quinn S. James, both of Oklahoma City, and Clyde Hinson, 24, a Negro, of Hot Springs.

The fourth escapee, Edward Carl Walker, 18, a Negro, of Hot Springs was recaptured by city detectives about two hours after the break was discovered.

Officers said a Hot Springs policeman who saw Walker called the sheriff's office to ask if he had been released, leading to discovery of the escape. Walker was picked up without resistance shortly thereafter.

Authorities said the men had cut a space about 12 by 16 inches in bars on a third floor window, then used a rope improvised from quilts to reach a fire escape leading to the ground.

It was not known how many men cut the bar. Authorities said 29 other prisoners made no attempt to escape.

Walker, held on a burglary charge, said he did not leave until about 30 minutes after the other three fled.

Hughes and James were held on charges of burglary, larceny, possession of narcotics and possession of burglary tools. Hinson was held on a burglary charge.

New World Financial Agent Formed

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The International Development Association, a new world organization which will help finance economic expansion in the underdeveloped nations, was formally established today.

"The official birth of IDA, as the new institution is known, was announced at the opening of the annual meetings of the World Bank, International Monetary Fund and International Finance Corp."

Harold Holt, treasurer of Australia and chairman of the joint sessions, made the announcement.

An affiliate of the World Bank, IDA will lend money to underdeveloped countries on terms easier than those offered by the bank. While the governors of the bank voted a year ago to set up IDA, its formal establishment was delayed until 60 per cent of its planned capital of $1 billion had been supplied by member countries.

So far, 15 nations have contributed $600 million to IDA. The biggest contributors have been the United States, the United Kingdom, West Germany, India and Australia.

Eligible for membership in IDA are the 68 member countries of the World Bank.

Eisenhower's message was read to the session by Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson.

Finance ministers and Central Bank officials from more than 50 nations are taking part in the meetings and discussions of the free world's fiscal problems.

Plane Crash in River Fatal to 2

HEBER SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—A light plane crash killed two Cleburne County men Sunday. More than 500 volunteers searched for three hours before they found the wreckage of the plane in Little Red River.

The victims were identified as Ray Ezell and Albert Elms, both of the Drasco community near here.

Authorities said the plane crashed seconds after it had pulled up to make another pass at the field after overshooting the strip on a landing approach. Several persons at the airport heard the plane crash.

They thought it hit in a field and searchers, including radio-equipped vehicles for the Red River Builders, contractor for the Greers Ferry Dam near here, hunted the area. A spotlight finally picked up the glint of metal in the river shoals, leading to discovery of the plane.

Both men were trapped in the tangled wreckage. The plane was in a shallow part of the river.

Canada Takes Lead in Fight Against Russia

By RELMAN MORIN

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—A Western counteroffensive against Soviet attempts to revitalize the United Nations rolled into high gear today with the Soviet Union accused of conducting a "giant propaganda campaign of destructive misrepresentation" to undermine the world organization.

Kicking off the counterattack for the West was Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker of Canada, who told the assembly that President Eisenhower had tried to open the door to East-West conciliation, but Khrushchev tried to shut that door.

President Eisenhower arranged meetings later in the day with two powerful leaders—Prime Minister Nehru of India and President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic, in a drive to rally massive support against Khrushchev's proposals to abolish the secretary-general's office and move the United Nations out of the United States.

Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld made a surprise appearance in the General Assembly as the session opened, and declared that not his future but that of the United Nations is at stake in Khrushchev's attacks on him.

Khrushchev's proposals look on the brink of ultimatum when he demanded that his terms be made or the cold war would get colder.

Diefenbaker accused Khrushchev of giving lip service to the United Nations "which would be destroyed by his proposal." He rejected as unjust the Soviet attacks on the secretary-general, and called those attacks part of "a transparent plan to undermine the prestige and authority of the United Nations."

In a vigorous counterattack, Diefenbaker poured scorn on Khrushchev's proposal to grant immediate independence to all dependent areas. He challenged Khrushchev to permit free elections in areas now under Soviet control.

For the Communists, Czechoslovakia's President Antonin Novotny endorsed Khrushchev's proposal to substitute a three-member commission for the secretary-general's organization, which he said would be "in full harmony with the democratic principles upon which the U. N. is based."

He was the first of the top Soviet bloc Communist leaders to address the assembly.

As Novotny finished, Khrushchev and Indian Prime Minister Nehru were chatting on the assembly floor.

But Argentina came to the support of Hammarskjöld, praising him for "impartiality, wisdom and firmness." Diogenes Taboada, Argentine's foreign minister, gave the assembly his nation's pledge of "renewed confidence" in Hammarskjöld.

When Hammarskjöld finished speaking, the Communist contingents, laughing, thumped their desks with their fists in what most onlookers took to be a gesture of mockery. They did not join in the applause for him.

The secretary-general's brief talk opened a day to be marked by much diplomatic activity touched off by Khrushchev's offensives at the United Nations.

President Eisenhower is playing a big role in the activity, with meetings with African leaders. He is working for massive support against Khrushchev's attempts to recast the U. N. structure.

No employee shall be employed at a wage rate permitted pursuant to this Section except under special license issued under applicable regulations of the Commissioner.

SECTION 9. KEEPING OF RECORDS. Every employer subject to any provision of this Act or of any regulation issued under this Act shall make, and keep for a period of not less than three years in or about the premises wherein any employee is employed, a record of the name, address, and occupation of each of his employees, the rate of pay, and the amount paid each pay period to each such employee, the hours worked each day and each workweek by such employee, and such other information as the Commissioner shall prescribe by regulation as necessary or appropriate for the enforcement of the provisions of this Act or of the regulations thereunder. Such records shall be open for inspection or transcription by the Commissioner or his authorized representative at any reasonable time. Every such employer shall furnish to the Commissioner or to his authorized representative on demand a sworn statement of such records and information upon forms prescribed or approved by the Commissioner.

SECTION 10. POSTING OF LAW. Every employer subject to any provision of this Act or of any regulation issued under this Act shall keep a summary of this Act, approved by the Commissioner, and copies of any applicable regulations issued under this Act, or a summary of such regulations, posted in a conspicuous and accessible place in or about the premises wherein any person subject thereto is employed. Employers shall be furnished copies of such summaries and regulations by the State on request without charge.

SECTION 11. JUDICIAL REVIEW. (a) Any interested person in any occupation for which any administrative regulation has been issued under the provisions of this Act, who may be aggrieved by any such regulation, may obtain a review thereof in the Circuit Court of Pulaski County by filing in such court within twenty days after the date of publication of such regulation a written petition praying that the regulation be modified or set aside. A copy of such petition shall be served upon the Commissioner. The finding of facts, if supported by substantial evidence, shall be conclusive upon the court. The court shall determine whether the regulation is in accordance with law. If the court determines that such regulation is not in accordance with law, it shall remand the case to the Commissioner with directions to modify or revoke such regulations. If application is made to the court for leave to adduce additional evidence by any aggrieved party, such party shall show to the satisfaction of the court that such additional evidence is material, and that there were reasonable grounds for the failure to adduce such evidence before the Commissioner. If the court finds that such evidence is material and that reasonable grounds exist for failure of the aggrieved party to adduce such evidence in prior proceedings, the court may remand the case to the Commissioner with directions that such additional evidence be taken before the Commissioner. The Commissioner may modify the findings and conclusions, in whole or in part, by reason of such additional evidence.

(b) Hearings in the Circuit Court on all appeals taken under the provisions of this Act shall be privileged and take precedence over all matters, except matters of the same character. The jurisdiction of the court shall be exclusive and its judgment and decree shall be final except that the same shall be subject to review by the Arkansas Supreme Court.

(c) The commencement of proceedings under subsection (a) shall not, unless specifically ordered by the court, operate as a stay of an administrative regulation issued under the provisions of this Act. The court shall not grant any stay of an administrative regulation unless the person complaining of such regulation shall file in the court an undertaking with a surety or sureties satisfactory to the court for the payment to the employees affected by the regulation, in the event such regulation is affirmed, of the amount by which the compensation such employees are entitled to receive under the regulation exceeds the compensation they actually receive while such stay is in effect.

SECTION 12. PENALTIES. (a) Any employer who hinders or delays the Commissioner or his authorized representative in the performance of his duties in the enforcement of this Act, or refuses to admit the Commissioner or his authorized representative to any place of employment, or fails to make, keep and preserve any records as required under the provisions of this Act, or falsifies any such record, or refuses to make any such record accessible to the Commissioner or his authorized representative upon demand, or refuses to furnish sworn statement of such record or any other information required for the proper enforcement of this Act to the Commissioner or his authorized representative upon demand, or fails to post a summary of this Act or a copy of any applicable regulations as required by Section 10 of this Act, or pays or agrees to pay minimum or overtime wages at a rate less than the rate applicable under this Act, or otherwise violates any provision of this Act or of any regulation issued under this Act, shall, upon conviction therefore, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1000 dollars. For the purposes of this subsection, each violation shall constitute a separate offense.

(b) Any employer who discharges or in any other manner discriminates against any employee because such employee has made any complaint to his employer, to the Commissioner, or his authorized representative that he has not been paid minimum or overtime wages in accordance with the provisions of this Act, or because such employee has testified or is about to testify in any such proceeding shall, upon conviction therefore, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than $200 dollars nor more than $2000 dollars.

SECTION 13. EMPLOYEES' REMEDIES. (a) Any employer who pays any employee less than the minimum or overtime wages to which such employee is entitled under or by virtue of this Act, shall be liable to such employee affected for the full amount of such wages, less any amount actually paid to such employee by the employer, and for costs and such reasonable attorney's fees as may be allowed by the court. Any agreement between such employee and the employer to work for less than such wages shall be no defense to such action.

(b) At the request of any employee paid less than minimum or overtime wages to which he is entitled under or by virtue of this Act, the Commissioner may take an assignment of such wage claim in trust for the assigning employee and may bring any legal action necessary to collect such claim, and the employer shall be required to pay the costs and such reasonable attorney's fees as may be allowed by the court.

SECTION 14. RELATION TO OTHER LAWS. (a) As of the date of enactment of this Act, Arkansas Statutes 81-613 through 81-619 (1947) relating to minimum wages of female workers, are repealed.

(b) Any standards relating to minimum wages, maximum hours overtime compensation or other working conditions in effect under any other law of this State or under any law of the United States on the effective date of this Act, which are more favorable to employees than those applicable to such employees under this Act or the regulations issued hereunder, shall not be deemed to be amended, rescinded, or otherwise affected by this Act but shall continue in full force and effect and may be enforced as provided by law unless and until they are specifically superseded by standards more favorable to such employees by operation or in accordance with regulations issued under this Act.

SECTION 15. RIGHT OF COLLECTIVE BARGAINING. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to interfere with, impede or, in any way diminish the right of employees to bargain collectively with their employers through representatives of their own choosing in order to establish wages or other conditions or work in excess of the applicable minimum under the provisions of this Act.

SECTION 16. SEPARABILITY. If any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the Act and the application thereof to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

SECTION 17. SHORT TITLE. This Act shall be known as the "Arkansas Minimum Wage and Overtime Act."

SECTION 18. EFFECTIVE DATE. This Act shall be in full force and effect from and after its adoption by a majority vote of the electors, voting on the question of the adoption of said Act.

More Anti-Catholic Literature

NOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—G. Luther Hodges of North Carolina said Sunday that anti-Catholic hate literature aimed at Democratic presidential candidate Sen. John F. Kennedy has increased in volume in recent weeks, indicating an organized propaganda effort.

Hodges told a news conference that an increasing amount of the literature has reached his desk recently.

"This is the kind of thing that will give us an even worse image abroad than we have now," Hodges said, deploring the injection of religion into the campaign.

Rejecting a candidate because of his religious beliefs, he said, would cause the U.S. to lose what little stature we have left in the world.

located in the former Highland peach orchard at Highland, Arkansas. Mr. Wallace devoted his address to agriculture and live stock. He gave statistics on the vast acreage of lands in west Arkansas growing saffrass and persimmon thickets. This land could be devoted to grass and pastureland and in turn live stock could be produced. Mr. Wallace lives in the home occupied by Bert Johnson and has his barn near his home. It is a real treat to drive over state highway 328 through the heart of the old Highland orchard passing Highway land post office near Point. The Wallace ranch with its herd of registered hereford cattle, near a vast deposit of gypsum, the old site of a Corinth church and Center Point, the first county seat of Howard County. The pastures, orchards of peaches, pecans and apples and the mountain scenery in the distance is worth while. The address was interesting throughout and if the advice is followed, we would have a more prosperous Arkansas. Mr. Wallace is a welcome guest and rotarian at all times.

Clyde Riggs, and employee of the F. H. A. here was a guest of Newt Daniel. Ellis Stewart was a guest of Adam Guthrie. Miss Betty Ligon and Tommy Jones, high school students were guest of the club. C. W. Bridges, James McElroy, Hope, and G. W. F. Wallace, Nashville, were guest Rotarians.

THE EASTER DINNER BY DONALD DOWNES

Copyright © 1960 by Donald Downes. Distributed by Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

(THE STORY: Although Cicco, an Italian bricklayer, is up to his ears in espionage work as Americans advance on Rome in 1944, his family's chief concern is obtaining food for a feast to announce his daughter's engagement. The feast will be held on Easter Sunday.)

Chapter VI

On the 28th of February, Cicco returned from smuggling the English colonels to Piglio where he had handed them over, as usual, to another guide, and reported to Luciano.

"Good, Cicco. Congratulations! But before you give me the details, there's something I want to ask you about. Do you have any chickens?"

"No, Signorino, I'm very sorry. We ate the last one nearly a month ago. But maybe I can get you one."

"No, no. I just wanted to know if you had any. Where did you use to keep them?"

"I kept them on the roof where my wife dries the laundry. They roosted and had their nest in the little shed which covers the water-pressure tank."

"Can you close this little place and lock it?"

"Yes, I keep the only key for the tenants. When there is water trouble, I fix it."

"Could you close off part of it with wire and keep some pigeons there for me?"

"How many pigeons?"

"Oh, 20 or 25."

"Where would I get the grain to feed them?"

"I will pay whatever is necessary. These are fine birds. Give them all they want to eat. I'd like them nice and fat. And feed them some grass, too. I don't suppose grass is in the black market yet."

"Oh, no, Signorino. But what would I tell my family? My neighbors?"

Luchino realized it would be better not to tell Cicco how important the pigeons really were, and certainly, whatever he told his family and the neighbors should be the same story he himself believed. Some sort of truth is always the best lie, he thought.

"Tell them truth, Cicco. That a signore for whom you work has offered you good pay to keep and fatten up some pigeons for his table. Meat is so scarce in Rome that when I have guests, I'd like to have a couple of fat pigeons to feed them."

On the evening of February 29, 1944, Oberst Krafft, SD chief (Kaltenbrunner's personal choice for the job), had called an emergency meeting at his immediate staff in his office. Behind him on the wall was a red swastika hammer on which were hung three photographs - Kaltenbrunner, Hitler and Himmler. On his desk was an enlarged snapshot of his wife and five blonde daughters.

Krafft's staff, after knocking, present.

Syracuse to Get First Big Test

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Syracuse's powerful college football champions get one of their severest tests of the season next Saturday when they play Kansas in a nationally televised game at Lawrence, Kan.

The Jayhawkers, winners of their first two starts and seventh ranked nationally, are capable of putting a crimp in a Syracuse winning streak which has stretched through 18 games of regular season play.

Kansas opened its campaign with a 21-7 victory over Texas Christian and last Saturday smashed Kansas State 41-0. It was just a warmup for the big, fast Kansas who scored in every period.

Syracuse, with virtually the same team which wept through 10 games last year and smashed Texas 23-14 in the Cotton Bowl, opened its campaign with an impressive 35-7 triumph over Boston University.

Mississippi, battling the defending champions for No. 1 position in The Associated Press poll, has a breather Saturday with Memphis State but Washington's Rose Bowl champions, ranked No. 3, have their hands full with a strong Navy team.

Southerners Divided on Johnson's Aid

By AL DOPKING

HOPE, Ark. (AP)—The Southern governors were divided today over how much help Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas is to the Democrats, presidential chances in their states.

Most of them here for the opening of the 26th annual Southern Governors Conference felt the Texas senator would help Sen. John F. Kennedy over some of the rough spots in Dixie.

But Gov. Luther H. Hodges of North Carolina and Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas said Johnson's name on the ticket hadn't helped as much as had been expected.

"We haven't heard as much about Sen. Johnson as might have been expected," Hodges said. He added, "But that is a natural thing since he is not at the head of the ticket."

Faubus gave the Senate majority leader credit for helping the ticket a little in the South, "but not as much as expected."

But Gov. Buford Ellington of Tennessee, a strong Johnson supporter at the Democratic national convention, called him "a tremendous help" in his state. Gov. John Patterson of Alabama echoed his sentiments.

"Johnson is a tremendous asset to the ticket in my state," Patterson said.

"The people of my state have great faith in him and he definitely will help Kennedy in Alabama."

The three-day conference opened today with such topics as conservation and industrial development on the program. But the governors couldn't keep their minds off politics.

While Ellington gave Johnson a lot of credit for Democratic strength in Tennessee, he said, "Don't sell Kennedy himself short."

He said Kennedy, in his recent swing through Tennessee, had drawn the largest crowds since the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

"His sincerity and willingness to discuss any issues have really impressed the voters of my state," he said.

Farris Bryant, the Democratic nominee for governor of Florida, differed sharply with Ellington and Patterson over Johnson's ability to deliver in the South, particularly in his own state.

Bryant said he had thought Johnson would give the ticket a lift in the South.

"But it hasn't proved out that way in Florida, as far as I can determine," he said. Bryant said Johnson may have closed the door on himself when he first announced he wouldn't accept the vice presidential nomination, then did.

"I didn't think this would hurt him but it may have," he said. At a news conference Bryant gave Vice President Richard M. Nixon the edge now for his state's 10 electoral votes. President Eisenhower won the state both in 1952 and 1956.

Bryant said he intended to vote for the Kennedy - Johnson ticket, but that was about as far as he was going.

He said Democrats and Republicans alike in the South as the local level "have nothing in common with their parties on the national level anymore."

He attacked the civil rights stands of both parties and described their platforms as "a total coloration of a socialist blueprint."

Gov. J. Lindsay Almond Jr. of Virginia, the Conference chairman, said Kennedy had an uphill fight for his state's 12 electoral votes. He added that Kennedy's Roman Catholic religion had become a "terrible hurdle" in the South despite his honest approach to the issue.

Hodges said, in connection with the religious issue, that he has been receiving more scurrilous literature attacking Kennedy and the Catholic Church than he had ever received before.

He deplored the injection of the issue into the campaign.

"This is a kind of thing that will give us an even worse image abroad than we have now," he said.

Two of the week's headline attractions, The Midshipmen, who smashed Villanova 41-7 Saturday before a gallery which included President Eisenhower, play the Huskies at Seattle. Army takes on California at Berkeley.

South's Need in Education to Be Studied

HOPE, Ark. (AP)—The South's needs and aims in higher education will be explored by a new commission of the Southern Regional Education Board.

The board, in its annual meeting Sunday, also stepped up its efforts to improve medical education by authorizing a study of the possibility of establishing some two-year schools for basic medical science and expanding present four-year schools.

Members of the new study commission will be named by Gov. Cecil H. Underwood of West Virginia, retiring board chairman, and Gov. Buford Ellington of Tennessee, elected chairman Sunday. They said they hoped to name some commission members by Tuesday.

Underwood warned the board that the South must provide for "doubled and tripled enrollments" in its colleges and universities within the next few years. He estimated some $2.5 billion will be needed for building construction at colleges and universities in the next few years, with another $2 billion a year required for their operation.

The commission, recommended by the board's executive committee, is expected to report next year with an outline of the South's higher educational goals for the next 10 to 15 years.

Recommendations of the commission will not be binding on the 16 southern member states. Commission members will meet with educational leaders at a conference in 1961, under board plans.

In the medical field, Winifred L. Godwin, the board's associate director, reported that a study he made showed that if the present demand for doctors continues, the South will need 86,000 physicians by 1975. He said the South now has 54,000 doctors. He said, however, that enrollment in southern medical schools has risen faster than the national average.

The board elected Dr. Wilson H. Elkins of College Park, Md., president of the University of Maryland, vice chairman. State Sen. Clifton Wade of Fayetteville, Ark., was named secretary-treasurer.

Ike's Arrival in New York Is Hailed

NEW YORK (AP)—Crowds estimated by police at 750,000 persons hailed President Eisenhower today as he arrived for important foreign policy talks with the leaders of India and the United Arab Republic.

Crowds packed 8 and 10 deep whistled and shouted approval as Eisenhower, arms outstretched, rode by in his "bubble top" limousine.

Eisenhower, a delighted grin on his face, checked into his temporary White House quarters in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel to prepare for meetings with India's Prime Minister Nehru and President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic.

Resuming his personal diplomacy, Eisenhower arrived from Philadelphia after a 17-minute jet flight aboard his White House plane.

The lunchtime crowds in the streets greeting the President appeared bigger than those which hailed him Thursday when he spoke before the United Nations. Police estimated the turnout then at more than 150,000.

Francis Cardinal Spellman rode in the back seat of the White House limousine with Eisenhower from Newark Airport. Spellman is to be the President's host tonight at a dinner sponsored by the Catholic charity organizations where Eisenhower is to speak.

The President's appointment with Nehru was set for 3 p.m. An hour and a half later, Nasser is due to call.

"If we turned down a candidate on the basis of his church, I think we will lose what little stature we have left in the world," Almond is campaigning actively for the Kennedy - Johnson ticket. But he saw the emergence of a Republican party in Virginia "when they put up able men for state offices." He added that he thought the two-party system would be a good thing for his state.

Almond opened the conference by reminding the governors that the conference had been formed to fight "freight rate discrimination against the South."

"We have succeeded in obtaining greater equality between regions in the railroad rate structures," he said in his prepared address. "But dangers of rate differentials injurious to the South have continued."

Porkers, TCU Highlight SWC Play This Week

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Arkansas and Texas Christian members of the big four of South-west Conference football, tangled at Fort Worth Saturday night in a game due to have a profound effect on the championship race.

Texas Christian, choice of many to win the title and rated No. 2 just back of Texas by the others, will put that "favorable schedule" to its first test.

The Horned Frogs are considered to have the best schedule, getting Arkansas, Texas and Baylor, the other members of the big four, at home.

Arkansas has raised a flock of eyebrows with its solid appearance as a contender, whipping Oklahoma State 9-0 and smashing Tulsa 48-7 last week. TCU made a poor start in falling before Kansas 21-7 but the Frogs redeemed themselves with a 7-6 triumph over Southern California last week.

Of almost as much interest will be the clash of Texas and Texas Tech at Austin in the second conference game on the week's card. Tech made its start in conference competition last week with a 14-14 tie with Texas A&M. Texas was pulling out of the doldrums, occasioned by an unexpected defeat at the hands of Nebraska, with a smashing 34-0 triumph over Maryland.

Texas Tech, following a rugged trail that has it meeting Texas, Texas Christian and Baylor on successive weekends, must win this week to stay in the race. A defeat and a tie, which counts as a half-game win, half-game loss, will just about eliminate a team.

Baylor blasts at Louisiana State at Baton Rouge Saturday while Rice plays host to Tulane.

Baylor was impressive with a 26-0 victory over Colorado of the Big Eight Conference last week. Rice lost to Georgia Tech 18-13 but made a favorable impression on what is to come.

Southern Methodist fell before Ohio State 24-0 in the second loss for the league in inter-sectional play last week. SMU rests this week while Texas A&M plays inept Trinity at San Antonio. The latter took a 45-0 lacing from New Mexico State last week.

Stengel Plugs Hole, Yanks Do It Again

Associated Press Sports Writer
By ED CORRIGAN

Just 11 days ago, the New York Yankees were clinging to the American League lead by one thin percentage point and it was leaky ship Casey Stengel was plugging.

The Yanks had just lost two straight to their country cousins, the Kansas City A's. A drastic patching job was needed with a four-game set coming up with the second-place Baltimore Orioles.

Stengel did the job, the leaks were plugged, the ship got on an even keel. The Orioles tumbled to four straight defeats, and today the Yanks are the champions of the American League for the 10th time in 12 years.

Since that day more than a week ago, the Yanks haven't lost. They've won nine in a row, including the clincher, a 4-3 decision over the Boston Red Sox Sunday.

To the Cleveland Indians goes a large assist. The Tribe blanked Chicago, 4-0, thus eliminating the White Sox.

The pennant is the Yanks' 25th in 40 years, a record that probably never will be equaled. The Giants are next with 17 pennants. In the American League the No. 2 club in pennant production was the old Philadelphia A's with nine, all under Connie Mack.

The Pittsburgh Pirates won their first National League pennant in 33 years, although they lost to the Milwaukee Braves, 4-2, in 10 innings on Eddie Mathews' home run. The Chicago Cubs shut out second-place St. Louis behind Glen Hobbie, 4-0, thus eliminating the Cardinals. The Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 7-1, and the San Francisco Giants turned back the Los Angeles Dodgers, 13-9, in other NL games.

The last time the Yanks met the Pirates was in the 1927 World Series—the last time the Buccos won the National League pennant. The Yanks won it, 4-0.

Ralph Terry—with a one-batter assist from Luis Arroyo—pitched the Yanks to their deciding victory.

The World Series will open on Oct. 5 in Pittsburgh. The first two games will be played there. The teams will get a day off and return to New York for the next three on Oct. 8-9-10. If it isn't over by then, they'll have another day off and head for Pittsburgh for the final two games on Oct. 12-13.

Bobby Locke took care of the White Sox for the Indians. He let the Pale Hose down with just four hits, and worse yet, dropped them into third place behind the Orioles, who whipped the Washington Senators, 3-1, when Brooks Robinson blasted an eighth inning home run with two on.

The Detroit Tigers pushed across two runs in the ninth inning to edge the A's 6-5, in the other AL game.

Pirates, Yanks Will Go Into World Series

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

A dream 33 years in the making came true for the Pittsburgh Pirates today. They are the champions of the National League.

It was in 1927 that the Pirates last won the National League flag. They met the New York Yankees in the World Series and were humiliated in four straight.

Danny Mortland, the manager who led Pittsburgh to the title, was a boy of 9 then.

Now, more than a quarter of a century later, the Pirates will try to even the old score, for they'll meet the Yanks again.

The Pirates won the pennant Sunday in inglorious fashion, bowing to the Milwaukee Braves, 4-2, when Eddie Mathews blasted a home run in the bottom of the tenth inning.

But it was the humble Chicago Cubs, and pitcher Glen Hobbie, in particular, who came to the rescue of the Buccos. Hobbie, beaten by St. Louis only last Friday, came back to hold the Cards to six hits to enable the Cubs to win, 5-0.

That mathematically eliminated the Cards, and, in fact, pushed them into third place behind Milwaukee.

In other National League action, the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Cincinnati Reds, 7-1, and the San Francisco Giants topped the Los Angeles Dodgers, 13-9.

The Yanks clinched their 10th American League pennant in the last 12 years under Manager Casey Stengel by turning back the Boston Red Sox, 4-3. The Cleveland Indians edged the Yanks by white-washing Chicago, 4-0, to eliminate the White Sox from contention. The Baltimore Orioles defeated the Washington Senators, 3-1, and the Detroit Tigers edged the Kansas City A's, 6-5, in other American League games.

The series will open on Oct. 5 in Pittsburgh. The first two games will be played at Forbes Field. Then there will be an off day, and the teams will play the next three games in New York on Oct. 8-9-10. If it isn't over by then, it's back to Pittsburgh for the final two games after another day off on Oct. 12-13.

This was the seventh National League championships for the Pirates. In addition to 1927, they won in 1901, 1902, 1903, 1909 and 1925.

Mathews' homer came off Elroy Face, who was making his 67th appearance on the mound for the Pirates. Until the eighth, the Buccs led, 2-0, behind Harvey Haddix. But the Braves tied it to set the stage for Mathews' homer.

Layne Sets Record in Nat'l Loop

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The National Football League shoved its star-studded cast of proved performers front and center over the weekend and inaugurated its 41st season with an impressive show of muscle at the attendance gate.

With veteran quarterback Bobby Layne leading the parade of NFL standouts, the well-established circuit drew 216,869 to its five weekend curtain-raisers in the first regular-season test of strength at the turnstiles with the newly formed American League.

Layne, firing passes accurately in an aerial duel with little Eddie LeBaron, pulled the Pittsburgh Steelers from behind for a 35-23 victory over Dallas Saturday night that spoiled the cowboys NFL debut.

Layne eclipsed Sammy Baugh's all-time record for yards gained passing in a career by connecting on 16 of 25 attempts for 288 yards and a 12-year total of 22,351 yards. Baugh made 22,085 in 16 seasons with the Washington Redskins.

The Baltimore Colts began their drive for a third successive NFL championship by whipping Washington 20-0 before 53,818 as Johnny Unitas extended his record TD-a-game string to 38 with a scoring pass to Ray Berry.

In other openers, New York's Eastern Division titlists edged the 49ers at San Francisco 21-19 with 14-398 in the stands, Cleveland blasted the Eagles 41-24 at Philadelphia before 56,303 and Chicago defeated the Packers 17-14 as 32,155 watched at Green Bay.

The American League, giving the NFL its first competition in a decade, won the much heralded battle for Dallas attendance supremacy by default when rain held the Steelers-Cowboys crowd to 30,000.

The head-on collision between Los Angeles and Dallas, two pre-season AFL favorites, attracted an estimated 42,000 at Dallas Sunday. The Texans won 17-0 while Oakland upset Houston 14-13 in another game.

Davidson Leads Dallas to Victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Dallas Texans, tied for the top spot in the Western Division of the American Football League after a showdown battle with Los Angeles, have struck the first blow against the National League in the all-important battle for fan support.

Competing against the NFL, Dallas Cowboys in a city that failed to support its last pro team, the Texans attracted 42,000 for their clash with the Chargers Sunday and whipped the West Coast eleven 17-0 on Collin Davidson's passing and kicking.

The victory pushed the Texans into a tie with the Denver Broncos for first place in the West. Both have 2-1 records.

In the Eastern Division, Houston and New York are tied for the lead after the Oilers surprise 14-13 upset by the Oakland Raiders, the only other Sunday contest. The Titans and Oilers also are 2-1.

While 42,000 turned out for the AFL game at Dallas, only an estimated 30,000—rain cut the crowd—were on hand for the Cowboys NFL debut, a 35-28 defeat by the Pittsburgh Steelers Saturday night.

A stubborn Texans' defense, which has allowed only 37 points in three games, kept the vaunted Los Angeles attack from penetrating deep into Dallas territory. Three offensive thrusts by the Chargers wound up in missed field goal attempts by Ben Agajanian.

Tom Flores' 14-yard scoring aerial to Gene Prohaska at the end of a 58-yard drive in the fourth quarter and Larry Barnes' second extra point brought the Raiders from behind for their stunning upset of the highly touted Oilers.

George Blanda had given Houston the lead with an 8-yard touchdown loss to Johnny Carson and a pair of field goals before Flores, a reserve, directed the late attack that gave Oakland its first triumph.

MARION, Ark. (AP) — The first degree murder trial of Jerry Lynn Blankenship, 18, of Memphis for the slaying of a teen-aged girl has been postponed indefinitely.

The trial, which was to have started today, probably will be scheduled for late in October.

It was delayed due to illness of Blankenship's attorney, Bon McCourtney, of Jonesboro.

Blankenship is accused of beating 14-year-old Carol Arlene Feathers of Memphis to death last Oct. 20 after she resisted his advances. Her body was found on a dump near West Memphis.
